PROPOSED GAS PLANT-

(Special Correspondence.)

LOGAN, June 3.—The special committee of the city council appointed to investigate the matter of granting a franchise for a gas plant to R. S. Campbell and others met last evening and went over the plans for the plant with Mr. Campbell and others interested. The committee made it plain that it would not grant the franchise for a longer period than 50 years, while the promoters had asked for a 100 years grant. The plan is to build a plant of sufficient capacity to supply the wants of 25,000 people and the estimated cost will be about $100,000. The consulting engineer of the promoters cannot be

OGDEN POLICE COURT.

OGDEN, June 4.—John Sullivan, James Cassey, William Eagan, Mark Murphy, Thomas Williams, William Mcduire and G. H. Fish were arraigned in police court Friday morning on the charge of vagrancy and on the motion of the city attorney were each given a suspended sentence of 99 days with instructions to leave the city at oter.

Rebert Giggin, Tom Williams, Wil-lam Cennors and Phil Cullen were each charged with drunkenness and sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or remain in the city bastile for five days, Jahn Ragan forfeited $5 bail on a similar charge.

places of business without a city license. Attorney Skeen, on behalf of the defendants, stated that it was the intention of these merchants to make a test case of the new city ordinance establishing a merchants' license and asked that a nominal fine be imposed, which would be appealed to the district court. Judge Murphy stated that he would make the fine sufficiently heavy to cause some interest to be taken in the case and imposed a fine of $100 in each case, which is the same amount as the license for this class of business.

On the motion of the county attorney, the case against Nels Higgins, charged with threatening to kill C. C. Richardson of Plain City, was dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction.

INSANE ACT OF DOPE FIEND.

OGDEN. June 4.—George Stratton, a confirmed user of drugs, came near ending his life in the city jail last night. He is a prisoner awaiting trial on a charge of burglary n the third degree He asked for morphine, but his request was dented. The man then had resort to a unique method of satisfying his craving for opium. He chewed a quantity of tobacco and brewed the juice, thus extracted over a fire, kindled with eigarette papers. He opened one of the veins in his arm with a sharp nail and injected, probably by means of a piece of wire, the concection into the blood. He became a raving manac shortly He became a raving maniac shortly after the effects of the poison manifested themselves.

Dr. Anna Ries, the city physician, gave Stratton an injection of medicine and he became quiet again. He

FIRST CIRCUS DAY OF SEASON OGDEN, June 4.—Friday was circus day, the first of the season, and children of all ages from all parts of the county were in attendance. The street parade drew the usual large crowds and the circus grounds were the center of attraction to the ever present small boy—also his sister, mother and father. The usual riff-raff which follows in the wake of this great American institution, was present and the police were kept on the alert looking for pickpockets and other petty criminals. Up to a late hour no unusual arrests had been made.

As early as the forepart of January, the question of increasing wages to $4.50 per day was taken up but no final arrangements made at that time. It is generally understood that work will be resumed as soon as a conference has been held between the interested parties. This is expected to take place before Monday, when it is hoped that all building will be continued.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WESTERGARD

OGDEN, June 4.—Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizibeth Westergard were held Friday afternoo at the Farr-West meetinghouse, Bishop Moroni Chugg conducting the scrvices. The speakers were Bishop Chugg, President C. F. Middleton, Bishop E. A. Olson and Elder Thomas. Music was furnished by the ward choir and interment was made in the Ogden city cemetery.

GENUINE PHILANTHROPY.

LOGAN, June 2.—Jens Johansen, who died on Wednesday evening, had been given credit for a good deal of charity and public philanthropy, but an investigation of his papers has disclosed the fact that his greatest gifts were made in a manner that prevented any publicity being given them. These papers show that since he has been in this country he has emigrated no less than 51 people, by providing the means for their passage to this country, and as all of them were poor people, he has never asked for the repayment of the loans thus made, and in but three or four cases have settlements been made with him: Some apparently had offered to settle but knowing their condition he had declined the offer.

COUNCILMAN KESCEL RESIGNS -DEPARTMENT REPORTS (Special Correspondence.)

(Special Correspondence.)

PARK CITY, Utah, June 3.—The city council met last evening in regular monthly meeting. Bills to the amount of $2.030.48 were allowed and warrants ordered drawn to pay for the same.

The city justice reported having tried 61 cases and collected in fines $1.296.

The city sexton reported six deaths during the month of May; three adults and three children.

Councilman J. T. Kescel sent in his resignation, giving as a reason that he was not able to devote the time that was required. The resignation was accepted. Mr. James Kearns, principal of the Lincoln school, was selected to fill the place.

The following were confirmed members of the volunteer fire department: J. R. Quinn. C. W. Townsend, Neil Collins, Ez. Workman, Ernest Williams, Robt. Wright and Wm. Berry.

Walter Evans was awarded the contract for sprinkling the sireets at $5 per day.

DRY FARM CROPS FAIL THROUGH DROUTH

Special Correspondence.)

(Special Correspondence.)

THISTLE, Utah county, June 2.—
Due to the uncommonly dry season the dry land crops, on the mountains in this vicinity will be a failure this year, which will be a severe lass to those engaging in that enterprise.

During the last 10 or more years, the roads in Spanish Fork canyon have never been as bad as they are now. One of the chief reasons is that fully as many herds of sheed as usual, have passed over the roads, and nothing has been done to keep the roads clear, which consequently are full of rocks and boulders, making the roads almost impassable in places.

PANGUITCH.

DECORATION DAY HONORED

(Special Correspondence.)

PANGUITCH, Garfield county. June 2.—Decoration day was well observed here. The town turned out enmass, and cleared the cemetery of brush and rocks. Some of the old palings around the graves were removed, and the appearance of the grounds very much improved. A free dance and ice cream, was given by the city and L. L. club in the evening.

Yesterday a boy and a match created quite a stir by starting a fire in the corral of Mrs. Gifford, It did not take long to attract a crowd, The fire department was soon on the ground and organized into a bucket brigade. The fire soon destroyed the corrals and sheds of Mrs. Gifford, Mr. Norton, and S. L. Gould, which were all joining. But by hard work of the boys and women, the fire was got under control without further damage. Fortunately there was no wind at the time or the loss of property would have been great. About $200 will cover the damage, Mrs. Gifford lost all her chickens, and Mr. Norton a calf.

The weather is very hot, and all would welcome a good rain.

FROST INJURES CROPS.

LOGAN. June 3.—There was a sharp frost throughout this county last night and early vegetables were nipped—in some districts quite severely. In Logan the damage done was smallest. On the west side some of the grain was hurt. The frest was rather remarkable in that it did not follow a storm as is usually the case here. There was no sign of storm, but in the early evening the temperature dropped very suddenly, and fires felt very pleasant.

The people of the First ward are preparing to tender a farewell reception to Elder Williard S. Longton, who is to leave here soon for the Eastern mission field. The affair will be held in the ward hall next Tuesday evening. STATE BRANCH NORMAL COMMENCEMENT

HUNTSVILLE, Weber Co., Utah, May 30.—Under the direction of Mr. Heber Scowcroft and Mr. Mc-Quarrie of Ogden a branch of the Ogden Civic Betterment league was organized at an enthusiastic meeting held here yesterday afternoon. Wilhardt Schade was elected president and Jos. MESA, Arizena.—M. A. Stewart has been appointed agent for The Deseret News and for Church works in Mesa, in place of F. T. Pomeroy, who has resigned on account of other duties taking all his time. Patrons of The News will please arrange to settle all accounts with him. Orders for Church works, etc., will receive prompt attention. Schade was elected president and Jos.
L. Peterson secretary-treasurer.
The ward meetinghouse is being remodeled. Some new rooms are in course of construction which will add greatly to the convenience of the building.

Many people from here attended the county eighth grade commencement exercises at Ogden Saturday. All of the eighth grade class from Huntsville were successful in passing the examinations by a good margin, receiving their certificates at the exercises there.

ORIGIN OF THE REORGANIZED CHURCH AND SUCCESSION.

A book of 140 pages showing the latter-day apostasy.

This book is invaluable and indispensable to missionaries and all other students of Church history. It deals thoroughly with the origin of the Reorganized church and conclusively proves it to be of apostate sources, also that that church has departed from the doctrines of the Prophet Joseph Smith and now attacks them vindictively, denying many of the principles of the gospel. The book also treats the Succession in the Presidency and shows that PRESIDENT BRIGHAM YOUNG WAS PROPERLY ORDAIN-ED TO LEAD THE CHURCH.

The program comprised the following numbers: "Vergeissmeinnicht." a German selection with translation by Grace Smith; papers on "Ameient Religious Customs and Beilefs" and on "Home Life in Japan," by Clara Nielsen and Ronald Jensen; recitations by Estella Wangsgaard and Leonard Anderson. In addition to the choruses, excellent music was rendered by Mrs. Deegan, Edith Wangsgaard, William Garner and Vina and Bertha Nielsen, Mrs. Hoyt's reading of "The Soul of the Violin" was highly appreciated. County Supt. Fagerisen and Bishop Halls gave inspiring talks on high school education.

Although several attempts have been made in the last few years to establish ninth grade work in Huntsville, the present class of 11 under the able direction of Prof. J. F.
